Terms of Service

Creatorz | Effective October 13, 2026

1. Agreement and service

These Terms of Service (Terms) govern access to Creatorz websites, applications, and related services (Service). By creating an account or using the Service, you agree to these Terms and the Creatorz Privacy Policy. If you use the Service for an organization, you represent that you may bind it to these Terms.

Creatorz is located in Riverside, California. Contact us at team@creatorz.app.

2. Eligibility and accounts

You must be at least [minimum age] and legally able to agree to these Terms. If you are under the age of majority where you live, a parent or guardian must review and consent where required. You must provide accurate account information, keep your credentials secure, and notify us promptly of unauthorized access. You are responsible for activity through your account except where law provides otherwise.

3. Creator content and license

You retain ownership of text, images, video, audio, designs, and other material you submit (Content). You grant Creatorz a nonexclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license to host, store, reproduce, display, distribute, format, and technically adapt your Content only as needed to operate, promote, and improve the Service and to make it available according to your settings. This license ends when your Content is deleted, except for copies already shared with others, reasonable backups, and records retained for legal or security reasons.

You represent that you have the rights and permissions needed to submit your Content and grant this license. You are responsible for your Content and for respecting privacy, publicity, intellectual property, and other rights. Other users may view, share, or interact with Content according to the features and settings you choose.

4. Acceptable use

Do not use the Service to break the law; infringe rights; impersonate others; harass, threaten, or exploit people; distribute malware or spam; interfere with security; scrape or access the Service using unauthorized means; or submit deceptive content or unlawful material. Do not post another person's private information without a lawful basis or permission.

If you publish an endorsement, sponsored post, or affiliate promotion, disclose material connections clearly and comply with applicable advertising rules.

5. Paid features and transactions

If Creatorz offers paid plans, digital goods, creator sales, or marketplace transactions, prices, fees, taxes, renewal terms, cancellation steps, refund rules, and any payout schedule will be shown before purchase or enrollment. Additional transaction terms presented at checkout apply. Do not activate paid features until those details are provided. Payment providers may process payments under their own terms and privacy notices.

6. Platform rights and feedback

Creatorz and its licensors own the Service, its software, design, branding, and related intellectual property, excluding your Content. You may use the Service only as these Terms permit. If you send suggestions, you allow Creatorz to use them without obligation or compensation.

7. Moderation, reports, and copyright

We may review, restrict, remove, or decline Content and suspend or terminate accounts when we reasonably believe they violate these Terms, pose a risk, or are unlawful. We may provide reporting or appeal processes where required by law. Send reports to team@creatorz.app with enough detail to identify the material and concern.

Copyright owners may send infringement notices to [designated copyright agent name and contact]. If Creatorz seeks U.S. DMCA safe-harbor protection, its agent must also be registered with the U.S. Copyright Office.

8. Third parties and changes

The Service may link to third-party websites or services. Their terms and privacy practices govern your use of them. We may change or discontinue features and will provide notice of material changes when required. Updated Terms become effective on the stated date; continued use after that date means acceptance where permitted by law.

9. Disclaimers and liability

To the extent permitted by law, the Service is provided as available, without warranties of uninterrupted operation or fitness for a particular purpose. Nothing in these Terms limits rights that cannot legally be waived. To the extent permitted by law, Creatorz is not liable for indirect or consequential losses. Creatorz's total liability for claims related to the Service will not exceed the greater of amounts you paid Creatorz in the 12 months before the claim or $100, except where applicable law prohibits this limit.

10. Termination, disputes, and contact

You may stop using the Service and request account deletion at team@creatorz.app. We may terminate access for material violations or legal or security reasons, subject to applicable law. Sections that by their nature should survive termination will survive.

California law governs these Terms, excluding conflict-of-law rules, unless mandatory law in your location applies. Courts located in Riverside County, California will have jurisdiction, except where consumer law gives you another forum. Contact team@creatorz.app first so we can try to resolve a concern.

Before publication

Confirm minimum age, product features, payment terms, and the designated copyright agent. Review liability and jurisdiction language for the places where Creatorz operates.
